INDEX

Volume XIII: October, 1933–June, 1934

ABBOTT, MARY ALLEN, Choosing the Movie, 89-94

Activity Program, The Unhappy Child and the, Gladys A. Risden, 42-44

Adapting the "Free Grade" to a Mentally Slow Group, Hazel Dockstader Jacobs, 421-427

Audio-Visual Instructional Materials, Howard A. Gray, 211-217

BAKER, HAROLD V., Self-Supervision by Teachers, 154-159

Ballad Appreciation, Berenice B. Beggs, 323-325

BARTON, CARRIE R., A Selected Bibliography on Supervision, 409-415

BAWDEN, H. T., An Economy Device for the Testing Program, 150-154

BEGGS, BERENICE B., Ballad Appreciation, 323-325

Berkeley Coördinating Council, The, Virgil E. Dickson, 263-266

Bibliography on Study, A Selected, Rachel Salisbury, 311-314

Bibliography on Supervision, A Selected, Carrie R. Barton, 409-415

BIGELOW, ELIZABETH B., Improvement in Reading as Shown by Standard Tests, 258-263

BISCHOFF, KATE P., A Project in English Composition, 276-277

BLAIR, JULIAN M., A New Method of Scoring Teacher Rating Scales, 42

BOARDMAN, WALTER S., Typewriting — Its Place, 178-179

BRADY, DAVID B., An Analysis of the Objectives and Functions of Supervision, 137-141

BROWN, FRED, The School as a Subsidiary of the Psychological Clinic in the Prevention of Neuroticism in Childhood, 254-258

BROWNELL, WILLIAM A., The Use of Objective Measures in Evaluating Instruction, 401-408

BRUCE, WILLIAM, Toward a Harmony of Diverse Educational Methods, 349-354

CAMPBELL, HELEN, Informality in Dramatization, 35-41

Character Training, Some Characteristics Essential to an Effective Program of, Herbert T. Olander, 416-420

Charles W. Eliot Centennial, The, Luther E. Warren, 294-296

Cheating, Bluffing, or What?, Frederick E. Hawkins, 315-317

Cheating, Bluffing, and Why, Vaughn C. Wallace, 428-429

Children's Literature and the Machine Age, Blanche Jennings Thompson, 167-172

CHILDS, ARNEY R., see TILTON, J. W.

Citizenship Instruction in Junior High School, John P. Dix, 318-322

CHEM, ORLIE M., and LYDIA F. WROATH, Practices in Homogeneous Grouping in Junior High School, 206-210

Conduct Mark, The, Joseph Miller, 193-198

CONNOR, WILLIAM L., What Materials Are Most Useful to Children in Learning to Solve Problems, 369-370

Creative Poetry—Mother's Day, Charlotte C. Lang, 372

Curriculum in the Junior High Schools of Houston, The Integrated, E. E. Oberholtzer, 364-366

DICKSON, VIRGIL E., The Berkeley Coördinating Council, 263-266; The Place of Scientific Research in the New Education, 337-348

DIX, JOHN P., Citizenship Instruction in Junior High School, 318-322

Dramatization, Informality in, Helen Campbell, 35-41

DRESDEN, B. M., Use of Tests as a Means of Discovering Causes of Failures in High School, 267-271

EDITORIAL COMMENT AND REPORT:
The School and Its Neighborhood, 48; The Ultimate Goal of Supervision, 49; What Is Happening to Supervision, 49; Meeting at

Chicago, 53; Materials of Instruction, 111; Social Planning, 111; The Schools and Depression, 112; Constructive Economy, 112; Basic Rights of the Public in Its Schools, 113; Intersectional Correspondence in the Junior Red Cross, 114; The Progressives Issue a Manifesto, 115; Association for Childhood Education, 116; How School Children Earn Money, 118; Publication of Results of Survey of Secondary Education, 118; Leadership in the Present Crisis, 180; Regional Conference of Progressive Education Association, 181; A Survey of Instruction in English, 183; The Financing of Education, 183; Handbook for Program Makers, 183; A Job at Hand, 229; Research in Supervision, 229; Yearbook of the Michigan Principals, 231; Contributions to Education by Various Hands, 231; Yearbook of the Dayton Principals, 233; Social-Economic Goals, 278; Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the Department at Cleveland, 278; Regional Conferences of Progressive Education Association, 280; Annual Convention of English Teachers in Detroit, 281; General Supervisors of Massachusetts, 282; A List of Books for Teachers, 282; The Horn Book, 282; Not Old Enough, 326; Emergency Aid in Education, 327; Revision of the High School Curriculum, 328; Bibliography for Elementary Schools, 329; Choosing a Career, 329; Superintendents in Conference, 373; Now It Can Be Told, 373; Annual Meeting of the Department at Cleveland, 374; General Supervisors of Massachusetts, 376; A Civic Curriculum, 431; Annual Membership Breakfast, 431; Prospectus of Eighth Yearbook, 433; Preparation of the Eighth Yearbook, 434; Regional Directors, 436; Summer Meeting of the Department, 436

Educational Method, Trends in, J. Cayce Morrison, 129-137

Educational Methods, Toward a Harmony of Diverse, William Bruce, 349-354

Education for the Handicapped, Recent Trends in, Christine P. Ingram, 95-101

EGINTON, DANIEL P., Seven Cardinal Excuses of Teachers, 101-107

Elementary Education, Frontier Problems in, J. Cayce Morrison, 1-9; 82-89

English, Who Is Teaching, Blanche Jennings Thompson, 429-430

Evaluation of the Seventh Yearbook, An, Clifford Woody, 394-400

Excuses of Teachers, Seven Cardinal, Daniel P. Eginton, 101-107

FEDERER, GEORGE A., JR., The Teaching of Integrated Physical Science in the West Virginia University High School, 271-273

GANNON, EDMUND J., A Unit of Work in the Fourth Year on "Holland," 173-174

GOODYKOONTZ, BESS, Scientific Method and Creative Supervision, 385-390

Grading from a Graphical Representation of Scores, Stella Stephens, 304-307

GRAY, HOWARD A., Audio-Visual Instructional Materials, 211-217

HAEFNER, RALPH, Vocational and Non-Vocational Typewriting, 19-25

HARTMANN, GEORGE W., The Next Step in Homogeneous Grouping, 141-144

HAWKINS, FREDERICK E., Cheating, Bluffing, or What, 315-317

HAYES, ELEANOR H., Why Pupils Fail, 25-28

HENDERSON, RUTH EVELYN, Junior Red Cross School Correspondence—A Résumé, 202-206

HERZBERG, MAX J., The Book of Newark, 355

History Project in an Eighth Grade Social Studies Class, A, Roy H. Norman, 274-276

Homogeneous Grouping in Junior High School, Orlie M. Clem and Lydia F. Wroath, 206-210

Homogeneous Grouping, The Next Step in, George W. Hartmann, 141-144

HOUSTON, FLORA K., An Experiment in Parent Participation in the Activities of a First Grade, 198-201

HUGHES, HAROLD F., This Business of Rating Teachers, 301-304

HUGHES, W. L., How the Rural School Supervisor Budgets Her Time, 44-47

INGRAM, CHRISTINE P., Recent Trends in Education for the Handicapped, 95-101

Integrated Physical Science in the West Virginia University High School, The Teaching of, George A. Federer, Jr., 271-273

JACOBS, HAZEL DOCKSTADER, Adapting the "Free Grade" to a Mentally Slow Group, 421-427
Junior Red Cross School Correspondence—A Résumé, Ruth Evelyn Henderson, 202-206

KULP, DANIEL H., What Measures for Grading, 145-149

Laboratory Work for the Beginner in the Study of School Administration, A. R. Mead, 163
LAMOREAUX, LILLIAN A., Transforming an Old Type School into the New Type School, 160-162
LANG, CHARLOTTE C., Creative Poetry—Mother's Day, 372
LATHAM, H. L., For Teaching Morality—A Guidebook for Teachers, 109-110
Lesson Plans with Suggestions for Improving Them, Edna Richmond, 224-226
Library Contacts in an Elementary School Organization, Ruth E. Norris, 226-228

MCCLINTIC, JOSEPH O., Young America at the Polls—A Student Voting Experiment, 108
Marionette Comes to the Classroom—A Unit of Work in Social Science, Fannie H. Silverman, 370-372
Materials Most Useful to Children in Learning to Solve Problems, William L. Connor, 369
MEAD, A. R., Laboratory Work for the Beginner in the Study of School Administration, 163-167
Measures for Grading, Daniel H. Kulp, 145
Mental Hygiene Needs of School Children of Today, Frederick L. Patry, 65-70
MESSENGER, HELEN R., Supervision Does Pay, 289-294
MILLAR, MARY M., Reading of Library Books—Unit of Work in English, 174-178
MILLER, JOSEPH, The Conduct Mark, 193-198
Morale in the Elementary School, The Development of, James W. Welsh, 28-35
Morality—A Guidebook for Teachers, For Teaching, H. L. Latham, 109-110
MORRISON, J. CAYCE, Frontier Problems in Elementary Education, 1-9, 82-89; Trends in Educational Method, 129-137
Movie, Choosing the, Mary Allen Abbott, 89-94

Neuroticism in Childhood, The School as a Subsidiary of the Psychological Clinic in the Prevention of, Fred Brown, 254-258
Newark, The Book of, Max J. Herzberg, 355
NORMAN, ROY H., A History Project in an Eighth Grade Social Studies Class, 274-276
NORRIS, RUTH E., Reflections of Library Contacts in an Elementary School, 226-228
NORTON, Mrs. JOHN K., The Use of the Terms "Supervision" and "Supervisor," 9-13

OBERHOLTZER, E. E., The Integrated Curriculum in the Junior High Schools of Houston, 364-366
Objective Measures in Evaluating Instruction, The Use of, William A. Brownell, 401-408
OLANDER, HERBERT T., Some Characteristics Essential to an Effective Program of Character Training, 416-420

Parent Participation in the Activities of a First Grade, Flora K. Houston, 198-201
PATRY, FREDERICK L., Mental Hygiene Needs of Children of Today, 65-70; How We May Help to Correct Speech Defects, 251-253
Poland, Educational Reform in, Henry J. Wegrocki, 247-251
POOLE, IRENE, Pupil Coöperation in Speech Program Activities, 297-300
Progressive Education Progressive, What Makes, H. Clay Skinner, 361-363
Project in English Composition, A, Kate P. Bischoff, 276-277
Psychology Teachers and Progressive Education, W. A. Saucier, 241-247
Pupil-Made Contract in a Ninth Grade Related Science Class, A, Iva I. Sell, 217-223

Radio Musical Accompaniment on Accomplishment in School Work, The Effect of, Claire Zyve and Evelyn Smith, 366-368
RANKIN, PAUL T., Scientific Method in Supervisory Programs, 391-393
Rating Teachers, This Business of, Harold F. Hughes, 301-304
READER'S GUIDE, THE, 56-64; 120-128; 185-192; 234-240; 283-288; 330-336; 378-384
Reading as Shown by Standard Tests, Improvement in, Elizabeth B. Bigelow, 258-263
Reading of Library Books—Unit of Work in English, Mary M. Millar, 174-178
RICHMOND, EDNA, A Critique of Lesson Plans with Suggestions for Improving Them, 224-226

RISDEN, GLADYS A., The Unhappy Child and the Activity Program, 42-44
Rural School Supervisor Budgets Her Time, How the, W. L. Hughes, 44-47

SALISBURY, RACHEL, A Selected Bibliography on Study, 311-314
SAUCIER, W. A., Psychology Teachers and Progressive Education, 241-247
Scientific Method and Creative Supervision, Bess Goodykoontz, 385-390
Scientific Method in Supervisory Programs, Paul T. Rankin, 391-393
Scientific Research in the New Education, The Place of, Virgil E. Dickson, 337-348
Self-Expression—Creative Work, Stella Sufinsky, 76-81
Self-Supervision by Teachers, Harold V. Baker, 154-159
SELL, IVA I., A Pupil-Made Contract in a Ninth Grade Related Science Class, 217-223
SHANNON, J. R., Directing Professional Reading as a Device in Supervision of Instruction, 308-311
SILVERMAN, FANNIE H., The Marionette Comes to the Classroom—A Unit of Work in Social Science, 370-372
SKINNER, H. CLAY, What Makes Progressive Education Progressive, 361-363
SMITH, EVELYN, see ZYVE, CLAIRE
Speech Defects, How We May Help to Correct, Frederick L. Patry, 251-253
Speech Program Activities, Pupil Coöperation in, Irene Poole, 297-300
STEPHENS, STELLA, Grading from a Graphical Representation of Scores, 304-307
SUFINSKY, STELLA, Self-Expression—Creative Work, 76-81
Supervision, An Analysis of the Objectives and Functions of, David B. Brady, 137-141
"Supervision" and "Supervisor," The Use of the Terms, Mrs. John K. Norton, 9-13
Supervision, A Selected Bibliography on, Carrie R. Barton, 409-415
Supervision by Persons Outside the School District, C. O. Williams, 13-19
Supervision Does Pay, Helen R. Messenger, 289-294
Supervision of Instruction, Directing Professional Reading as a Device in, J. R. Shannon, 308-311

Teacher Rating Scales, A New Method of Scoring, Julian M. Blair, 42
Testing Program, An Economy Device for the, H. T. Bawden, 150-154
Tests as a Means of Discovering Causes of Failures in High School, Use of, B. M. Dresden, 267-271
THOMPSON, BLANCHE JENNINGS, Children's Literature and the Machine Age, 167-172; Who is Teaching English, 429-430
TILTON, J. W., and ARNEY R. CHILDS, The Use of the Yale Photoplays for Adults, 71-75
Transforming an Old Type School into the New Type School, Lillian A. Lamoreaux, 160-162
Typewriting—Its Place, Walter S. Boardman, 178-179
Typewriting, Vocational and Non-Vocational, Ralph Haefner, 19-25

Unit of Work in the Fourth Year on the Topic "Holland," A, Edmund J. Gannon, 173-174

WALLACE, VAUGHN C., Cheating, Bluffing, and Why, 428-429
WARREN, LUTHER E., The Charles W. Eliot Centennial, 294-296
WEGROCKI, HENRY J., Educational Reform in Poland, 247-251
WELSH, JAMES W., The Development of Morale in the Elementary School, 28-35
Why Pupils Fail, Eleanor H. Hayes, 25-28
WILLIAMS, C. O., Supervision by Persons Outside the School District, 13-19
WOODY, CLIFFORD, An Evaluation of the Seventh Yearbook, 394-400
WROATH, LYDIA F., see CLEM, ORLIE M.

Yale Photoplays, The Use of the, J. W. Tilton and Arney R. Childs, 71-75
Young America at the Polls—A Student Voting Experiment, Joseph O. McClintic, 108-109

ZYVE, CLAIRE, and EVELYN SMITH, The Effect of Radio Musical Accompaniment on Accomplishment in School Work, 366-368